

An aerial photograph of a rural area. A yellow boundary line outlines a large parcel of land. Inside this boundary, there is a cluster of four large green-roofed buildings, likely a farm or industrial site, situated near a dirt road. A dashed white line, labeled "Private Road", runs horizontally across the lower portion of the yellow boundary. The surrounding area consists of green fields and dense trees. The text "WARD TOWNSHIP" is overlaid in the upper-middle section of the image.
